Added Item of the month: Besides the Missiv, this month we ad a tuch of related poetry as a way of enhancing the message.

Future Plans: We ar also setting up 2 blogs on Blogger, to wich u ar invited to make yur own comments. Pleas alow us a little more time to get them functioning.

Welcom to my new Missiv Magazine!

This month marks a new venture.

With the help of my assistant Karen Orman, owner of Focus One Design in Victoria B.C., I am launching the Missivs as a monthly e-zeen, to be presented in PLEA spelling ["Pleas Let English Adjust"].

We continue with the covver letter as befor [belo], but we ar able now to ad extra features.

Expect to meet the ocazional poem, anecdote, household hint, cute drawing, news release or wotever in adission to the Missiv.

And be sure to chek out the website itself, www.wertheliving.org, where new content will appear each month.

Frends

The Missiv for this month mite not sound very interesting, but it is. It's from an email dialog between me and a frend of mine who doutd wether church bildings wer a good way for cristian luv to be expressd. We each had our say. See wot u think.

Pete Boardman, my corespondent, was an activ New York member of the Spelling Society. Raisd as a Catholic, father of 9 children & grandfather of 18, he had concluded that the church was at fault altho Cryst himself was not.

Pete passd away of cancer in 2007. Our conversations since then hav continued ocazionaly, but this time without the need for either computer keebord or cel fone. My frends out thare find him for me.. His latest remark this morning re churches was "I wudnt exactly say I'v changed my mynd..." Theo

On Entering Church

My God, I cum to dy heer,
A tresure to inherit;
All fear, all pride I lay aside,
And all ernd merit.

Within this holy place let stilness rein,
Nor let me sigh..., nor laf, nor weep.
The pacient hart the pulse of hevvn may gain
In silence deep.

My thauts like petals open
Befor thine eye all-seeing.
Like summer sun thy wil is dun;
Thou hast my being.

My soal's bruze branches feel thy warmth agen,
To thee inclined,... by thee made hoal.
Now may I breathe a soft & sweet Amen,
Hart, mynd and soal!
